

Why does the MasterZap Importer keep throwing a File Already Exists error message when I try to import a file or project from an older version of Achronon to the version I'm using now? This also happened when a project was being moved from Chronon to Achronon. This did not happen with the master zap importer. And we are talking about RLD projects! Last time I tried to open the older project it said "The file was found on your computer but was not restored or deleted." I have done all this and re-opened the project and the file. Also, I'm not used to dealing with contact lists and I'm having an issue with that file not importing from other contacts. Does this happen with everyone? And yes, I tried deleting the original file on both versions of Achronon. Hey guys, I managed to get an entire e-mail batch in one go and I'm hoping to see if there is some sort of message that might help, emailing us large batches has been the best way for us to keep in touch, so I figured I'd ask if anyone has any tips on this. I'm usually one of those people who cracks the whip when it comes to email at work but I had a night off and this had slipped my mind, so here we are. Email has now finished processing. There have been a few other issues this week, so please let us know if you find anything else.

Cheers, The e-mail team I'm not real sure how to go about this, but there was an e-mail with an attachment in it and when I tried to open the attachment the file was saying the file was damaged. I'm wondering is there a way to open it without it saying the file was damaged? And if it says I need to repair the file, is there an offsite link or anything where I can download it? Hi all, I am really struggling with a file that is on my server (in the form of a few rar files) that is acting wonky - it is corrupt. I am getting a message when I try to open the file that it is corrupt, but I can't find anywhere on the file where that is and would like some help figuring it out. The file is for the Darksides part of the UOE mod, if that helps. Hi guys, e79caf774b
